Message from the Director

In case you haven't heard, Motor City Dance Factory is thrilled to announce our 25th anniversary celebration with a Black Tie Gala on June 20th.

- This event is open to all our families, and children are warmly welcomed.
- The Gala will feature an exciting program along with a grand party.

We invite you to make plans to be part of this historic occasion. Our program will be hosted by my cousin, journalist Sheinelle Jones, from NBC's Today Show, who is now also the co-host of the Jenna and Sheinelle Show. She will be doing what she does best as she interviews me live. The untold story of Motor City Dance Factory is filled with fascinating twists and turns. We can't wait to share this special evening with you!

Student Spotlight

Brianna Williams- Class of '26

Brianna Williams is currently a senior at University High School in Southfield. She has been a dedicated student at MCDF since her early days as a Kinderdancer, proudly sporting her polka dot yellow bikini. Brianna is an exceptional dancer who has thrived in our Factory level classes. Beyond dance, she is also an active member of the choir and showcases her talent as an artist. After graduation, her aspiration is to pursue a major in computer science. We are incredibly proud of Brianna's accomplishments and looks forward to celebrating her bright future both on and off the stage.
